Industry experts give advice on planning for the future as a part of aging well

Brookdale Assisted Living Mankato, Chelsey Law Firm and Freedom Home Care have partnered to share information from industry experts regarding the value of case management and the importance of getting your affairs in order.

The event will be held at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, February 20th at Brookdale Assisted Living Mankato at 100 Teton Lane in Mankato. The event is free and open to the public.

Robert Chelsey, of Chesley Law Firm will be presenting Getting your Affairs in Order.

Sharon Chader, of Freedom Home Care will be presenting on the Value of Case Management.

Ask the Experts

We understand that part of aging well is preparing for the future. As part of our service to aging adults and their families in conjunction with Freedom Home Care and Chesley Law Firm, Brookdale Assisted Living Mankato presents The Value of Case Management and Getting Your Affairs in Order.

The Value of Case Management
Sharon Chader
Licensed Social Worker, Freedom Home Care

Sharon has been working with older adults for over 35 years and has experience in Assisted Living, Hospice and Home Care settings. Sharon was the proud owner of Elder Care Services, providing case management for aging adults, for over 20 years before becoming a part of the Freedom Home Care team.

Sharon will provide insight and real life examples of how case management has changed the lives of aging adults who needed extra support and advocacy as well as having a plan for when family is not available to help.

Getting Your Affairs in Order
Robert Chesley
Attorney at Law, Chesley Law Firm

Bob has practiced law for over 30 years. His Elder Law practice includes Nursing Home Planning, Medical Assistance, Probate, Guardianships and Conservatorships.

Bob will be offering information on advanced care directives, power of attorney and what people need to do to plan ahead for end of life.
